- The Divani Palace Hotel, Corfu is a beautiful 4 star hotel, formerly part of the Hilton Group. It has 162 rooms with a mix of double/twin rooms and triple rooms and 2 suites. Please enquire about suite prices directly with the hotel.
- Location: 10 minutes from Corfu International Airport and 10 minutes to Corfu Old Town
- We have 40 rooms held until July 31st 2016, strictly on a first come, first served basis, but more may be available if needed.
- The price quoted is better than anything you will find online, and only available when quoting 'Al-anon' when booking.
- Breakfast and dinner are included for the convention weekend, on a buffet basis.
- If you are staying before or after the event, please confirm if you want B&B or half board for those nights when booking.
- Rooms are either Lake/airport view, or garden view. The Lake/airport side gets the afternoon sun, which may be too hot for sitting on the balcony, or it may be just what you wish. The garden view rooms are quieter and have the morning sun.
- The hotel are generously providing the two meeting rooms to us free of charge on a trial basis for the first year. Please support the hotel by staying there for at least the 2 nights of the convention so we may be able to continue the event into 2017 and beyond on the same basis.

Please book directly with the hotel by telephone – 0030-2661 038 996, or by email: info@divanicorfu.gr using the attached booking form quoting Al-Anon as the booking reference to get the discounted prices.

Please ensure you confirm you are attending the Al-anon convention when you book

There is a local bus service which stops outside the hotel, to the Old Town, but not from the airport. Taxi from the airport is about €15.

Parking at the hotel is free of charge, with 60 spaces available.

Weather Forecast

According to www.holiday-weather.com Corfu has beautiful weather in September, with highs of 28C/82F, lows at night of 17C/63F, and an amazing sea temperature of 24 degrees! At the time of the convention there is an average of 11.25 hours of sunlight per day – NICE.

It does rain at times in September so please be prepared for this too.
